

Matt Cherry is the President of Toledo City Council and the District 2 Councilman since 2014. Matt is also a Business Representative for Sheet Metal Worker's Local 33 in Toledo. In his time on Council, Matt has delivered road improvements, good-paying jobs, and balanced budgets for Toledo's residents. As a husband and father of two children, Matt works hard to ensure that Toledo's neighborhoods are a good place to live, play, and raise a family. A Democrat and the son of a retired Toledo policewoman, Matt is a native of Toledo and a graduate of Bowsher High School.
